

2020 National Interfaith Week

Birmingham Programme

Fri 6th Nov – Tues 17th Nov

National Interfaith Week, this year occurs between Sat 7th and Sun 15th November, for which the Birmingham Council of Faiths is again coordinating the Birmingham programme. The aims of Interfaith Week are:-

- to strengthen interfaith relations at all levels;
- increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, in particular celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhoods and to wider society;
- and to increase understanding between people of religious and non-religious beliefs.

This year presents a particular challenge because of the need for social distancing as a result of the Covid-19 Pandemic. However our regular team of Interfaith Week organisers have risen to the challenge in an amazing way with 22 events, mainly virtual. As a preface to our series of events, our Connecting Communities programme on Unity FM 93.5 radio programme on Mon 26th November focused on Interfaith Week with guests Ashley Beck, Interfaith Development Officer, (National) Interfaith Network; Pete Doubtfire, BCF, Faiths Footsteps for a Low Carbon Future and Birmingham Peace Hub; and Rabiya Latif, Coordinator, Near Neighbours. As usual the programme was hosted by Mahmooda Qureshi and Dr Peter Rookes. Listen to the programme on:- <https://wetransfer.com/downloads/aef0f7e9a9e14608ae1fa29efaf4785020201028182253/3b0f93218154b803a7b99f74301f5b7a20201028182253/6f774c>

Our Birmingham Interfaith Week programme will commence with the Opening Ceremony Launch Event on the afternoon of Friday 6th November – Just imagine that we are in the Council House, as usual, because the format on Zoom will follow the usual pattern with official opening by the Lord Mayor. This year will be special by 2 particular features:-

- a) Video Clips of Birmingham Museums Lockdown Conversations presented by Rosie Barker, Senior Engagement Officer, Birmingham Museums and Art Gallery, and
- b) Launch of the Birmingham Scout and Guide More in Common Badge by David Bradnock,

President of Birmingham Scouts and Deputy Lord Lieutenant; with an introduction by Kim Leadbeater, sister of Jo Cox and Ambassador of the Jo Cox Foundation. The ethos of the badge is to show compassion, kindness and friendship to others, particularly those who are different from ourselves. Activities to gain the badge are all achievable during lockdown conditions.

Whether you enjoy debates; spiritual activities; hearing the stories of migration to Birmingham; understanding how people of different faiths are working together; taking part in meditation; learning about the challenges and opportunities experienced by people with mental health issues; or taking part in a quiz – there is something here for everyone.

Events are listed in chronological order. To take part follow the Zoom or Eventbrite link, or respond to the email address given. If you experience any problem, please contact me at pjrookes@gmail.com or 077033 36088.
